Publisher's Notice.

The address listed on each paper shows the date to which the subscription is good. If the date has expired, the paper will not be delivered until the subscription is renewed.

THE DERBY is a new style hat just received at Fitch's.

FITCH has just received an elegant line of clothing for Men, Boys and Children, at prices lower than ever.

DIAMOND BIRTHS, 75 cents at $1.50; other brands at $1.00 to $1.50 at Fitch's.

BULTANA is a new patent elastic black standing collar, never seen before in this market. You can now see it at Fitch's.

You can get two good linen collars, latest style, from factory for an even quarter at Fitch's.

You can get a Laundry Shirt for 50 cents at Fitch's.

50 cents will get a fair working shirt and 60 cents a heavy cloth with double back, made to order, at Fitch's.

Spring clothes are in and Mottis is busy making up those nobby suits at Fitch's.

If you want a nice tie or cravat you can get it at Fitch's.

The most popular and fragrant perfume of the day is "Blackneck." Try it. Sold by Everett & Starr, Wellington, Ohio.

Graining.

Having secured the services of a Cleveland grainer, who makes graining a specialty, I am now prepared to take orders in graining oak, black walnut, chestnut, etc. Orders by mail or personal call.

W. S. STEPHENSON.

Millinery.

Mrs. A. H. Palmer would inform the ladies of Wellington, Ohio, that she has just opened a fine line of Bonnets, Hats, Ribbons, Flowers, Trimmings, Etc., all new and cheap and she believes they can be sold as cheap as any ever offered in this village, to an inspection of which all are cordially invited. Room one door south of Baldwin, Laundon & Co.'s, up stairs.

Wanted—Good Veal Calves.

We will pay the highest market price for good veal calves, from 3 to 8 weeks old. Will also pay top price for good fat steers and hogs, weighing from nine to thirteen hundred pounds. Fat hogs and sheep wanted at all times by our new market house.

MINE & MOREHOUSE.

We Challenge the World.

When we say we believe, we have evidence to prove that Shiloh's Consumption Cure is the best lung medicine made, in as much as it will cure a common or chronic cough in one half the time and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more cases of Consumption cured than all others. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child, and we guarantee what we say. Price 15 cents, 50 cents and $1. If your lungs are sore, back or chest lame, use Shiloh's Tonic Plaster. Sold by Everett & Starr, Wellington, Ohio.

New Paint Shop.

Mr. Frank S. Powers has fitted up a Paint Shop in the room first door east of Crocker's warehouse, and is now prepared to do anything in the line of House, Sign and Carriage Painting. He proposes to make Carriage Painting a specialty and will give prices lower than ever before. Address in Wellington and warrant a first-class job.

No Deception Used.

It is strange so many people will continue to suffer day after day with Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Constipation, Sour Stomach, General Debility, when they can procure at our store Shiloh's Vitalizer, free of cost if it does them no good or relieve them. Price 75 cents. Sold by Everett & Starr, Wellington, Ohio.

From all parts of the country reports come of the immense sales and increasing demand for that deservedly popular dressing machine, The Old and New, which is now being sold at $30 including all the attachments, and at once secured for the regular price of $40.

The people, far beyond that claimed by any other machine, are buying the old high priced machine, and seeking territory for the "Enterprise" machine at the lowest price they can obtain all other machines, where the reputation and low price is made known. This splendid machine comes with all the improvements, and is made of the best material, and durability of its work, ease of management, light running and certain of operation, is really made upon sound principles, with positive working parts all steel, and can be safely put down as the very best of its kind, thoroughly dressing machine, in every particular, that will outlast any machine, and at a price far below any other. It is thoroughly warranted for five years. Kept in order free of charge. And for any part of the country for examination by the customer before payment of the bill. We can predict equally as large a demand for this section as in others. Families wishing the machine manufactured should write direct to the factory, and enterprising persons wishing to see the chance should apply for a circular of this paper. Address Standard Machine Co., Cor. Broadway and Clinton Place, New York.

Local and Miscellaneous.

—Frank Serage is painting his store front.

—Mrs. Hood is building an addition to her house.

—Don't let the printer be the last man you pay.

—Gasoline by the gallon or barrel at Grank B. Serage's.

—Reliable receipts for coloring given away with all dye stuffs sold at Everett & Starr's.

—A lady's pin was found by the walk near the Disciple Church. Enquire of H. Bennett.

—Don't fall this spring to replace the dead shade trees with live ones wherever it is required.

—Frank Powers has decided to open a business on his own account. See his card in this issue.

—For SALE—A fine horse, seven years old, perfectly sound, true, and gentle. Inquire at this office. 314

—Fitch has nice Percalé Shirts for boys, cheaper than you can buy the materials and make them at home.

—FOR RENT—Two good brick houses in the west part of the village. Inquire of C. W. HAMENWAY.

—FOR SALE—House on corner of North Main and Vine streets, at a great sacrifice. Inquire of A. S. POWERS.

—Rube Miller, the colored man from Bellevue, won in the foot race at New London Tuesday. The race was for a purse of $500.

—After the severe winter and consequent loss of house plants, let those who have a supply divide up and make their neighbors happy.

—Mrs. Butler, wife of the superintendent of the Plymouth public schools, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Biggs, Sabbath last.

—Photographs of nearly 50 designs to order from the beautiful White Bronze Monuments can now be seen at the office of R. N. Goodwin. It —Orrin Dirlam, of Huntington, aged 87 years, had two bad teeth extracted at Dr. Holbrook's office last Monday. His courage and nerve was equal to his age.

—Dr. McClaran has rented the rooms in the second story of O. M. Strop's building for an office. We think there are none in town so well adapted to the purpose.

—Agent Fisher offers to furnish coal clinders to fill up the mud holes near the depot, if the authorities will distribute them. Wouldn't it be well to accept his proposition?

—The excavation for foundation and basement of the new post office was commenced last Friday. The Bunco block having been previously removed to the west part of the village.

—Mrs. A. H. Palmer has a card in this issue counseling that she will open a millinery store in the room formerly occupied by Mrs. A. L. Dewey, south of Baldwin, Laundon & Co.'s store.

—The fire in Mr. Crocker's house was not the fault of the grate setting, but from letting the ash pit get so full as to nearly reach to the floor joist, and the hot coals from below set fire to the timbers.

—We have printed receipts for coloring with directions for use, which we give to all purchasing dye stuffs at our store. They have all had years of trial and will be found reliable.

—J. W. HOUGHTON.

—On Sunday last, the double team of J. S. Warner, hitched to a two-wheeled carriage and left standing in the yard for a few moments, became frightened and ran away, making almost a total wreck of the carriage.

—Any one who has tried has found it difficult work to arrange boots and shoes to look well in a show-window. Mr. Husted has succeeded in overcoming this by his elegant show-case. C. H. Bush may deserve some credit just here.

—R. F. Jones, of Wellington, has a fine Jersey bull, bred by the noted importer and breeder, W. L. Gardner, Norwalk, Ohio. It is thoroughbred and is recorded in the American Jersey Cattle Club Register, and is a very fine animal.

—Holloway's Pills and Ointment, advertised in another column, will be found at Houghton's drug store. They have a reputation established by years of use, and need no recommendation to those who are acquainted with their merits. Try them. 31-4

—A five hours' walking match on the far grounds last Saturday, between M. Slade, of Solon, and E. A. Brown of this place, resulted in the defeat of the former, he becoming exhausted at the expiration of four hours and ten minutes. Brown walked 20.1 miles and Slade 19.3 miles.

—A colored man in the employ of Dr. McClaran, left for parts unknown some time during Monday night; but not until he had relieved Mr. Jesse Flenner, the doctor's next-door neighbor, of a fine suit of clothes. A dispatch from Columbus states that he was seen in that city on Tuesday.

—The friends of H. O. Biggs and wife made them a surprise crystal wedding on the 15th anniversary of their wedding, which occurred last Monday evening. The company gathered at the American House and dropped in on them just as they were about to retire. They received a large number of presents.

—A German who travels for a New York wholesale house, standing near while we were scribbling items for the ENTERPRISE, said: "Sir, I will give you something to write! This morning when I start out from Cleveland, the baggage master says my trunk weighs one hundred and forty-five pounds, and I must pay twenty-five cents for the life pounds too much. I tell him, 'I see your whole railroad in—' in a place yet is not you know—before I pay you any twenty-five cents.' "Well, what did you do about it?" he asked. "I shut open my trunk and takes out a box of my twenty-five cents, and carries it in my hand, then he checks my trunk and says 'noting'."

—At the M. E. Church Social last week, at J. H. Bowly's, instead of the usual refreshments they had "The Song of the Seven" represented by personations, each character being well adapted to her part and the entertainment pleasing. We wish it might be repeated in a larger room with more to enjoy. There are better things than late supper for the cultivation of our social natures.

—One of the sweetest songs we have heard this many a day is entitled "We Shall Meet at the Little Ones There," words and music by Will L. Thompson, East Liverpool, Ohio. The song is an inspiration of comfort, surely, to all whose homes have been invaded by death. It is one of the few compositions which will live for generations. To all lovers of music we say, send 40 cents to the author and bless the household by a copy of this song. (Methodist Recorder.)

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church have paid on the parsonage, which they bought three years ago this month, $794.80, interest included. A year ago they also paid $300 on the church debt, and have within a few months given $178.35 to calls of benevolence from abroad, goods amounting to $68.35 being sent to missionary stations in Utah, and money and boxes of clothing to Mrs. Ryder, who is working among the freedmen in New Orleans. They have besides expended enough on the parsonage to keep it in good repair.

—Mrs. Lucretia Graham, wife of Mr. Angus Graham and mother of Mrs. W. F. Eccleston, died at her home in this village on Thursday, April 17th, at 2 o'clock. She had been sick for some time, and her death was hourly expected for the past two weeks. Her disease was cancer of the stomach, as learned by a post mortem examination. The funeral will take place at the house at 10 o'clock, and the remains will be buried in the cemetery at Litchfield the same day. (Medina Gazette.)

—Mrs. Graham was the mother of Mrs. Daniel Peters of this place.

—Our sidewalks are in bad condition in many places. One year ago the committee on walks canvassed the whole village and inspected them carefully. Notice was then given to lot owners to repair or put down new ones, as in their judgment was needed. A few did so, but many have not yet done so, and the committee is now on the job.

—The business men are signing a petition praying the City Fathers to prohibit street peddlers from vending their wares on Broad street. There is no good reason why this petition of our business men should not receive a generous consideration. The petitioners pay taxes and rent while the every day street peddler pays a license of a few cents, displays his wares on a goods box or vehicle, obstructs the way, pays no rent and no tax, and can therefore undersell the regular business men, and generally prejudices public sentiment in his favor by misrepresentations against the regular merchant. This is especially true of the drug and stationery trade. Prohibition is perhaps impossible, but a good, stiff license fee might have a good effect. (Elyria Constitution.)

—We commend the above to the notice of our City Fathers, hoping they will see the reasonableness and importance of taking some action for the benefit of our own tradesmen.

VISITORS AT THE COOK LECTURES.

Many ministers from the surrounding country attended Cook's lectures. Among the number we noticed Messrs. McCounghey of Lorain, Clark of York, Williams of Wakarusa, Reed of Medina, Breen of Amherst, Hargrave of Brooklyn, Meek of Bellevue, Broadwell of Norwalk, Strong of Sandusky, DeLong of Sheffield, Rice of Penfield, Baldwin and Hushour of Pittsfield, Martindale of Sand Ridge, Weber of East Townsend, Hinds Smith of Ashtabula, N. J. Whitman of Chatham, Medina county, Wm. Kleper of Perkins, Erie county, N. J. Close of Avon, J. G. Fraser of Madison, Roberts of Penfield, and others.

—The special train brought from Elyria 77 people, and from Bellevue, Norwalk, and intermediate stations, 247. Wakarusa alone sent over 100, and if it had been possible to secure more reserved seats, many more would have come from the various stations. Among the ministers who came by the specials were Messrs. Williams, McConnell and Backus, of Wakarusa, and Combs and Catworthy, of Norwalk, and Pepper of Bellevue. (Oberlin News.)

—The plangent and charming actress, Miss Marian Mordant, of the Broadway Theater, New York, was taken suddenly with a severe hoarseness, was unable to perform; a friend recommended Giles, Liniment Iodide Ammonia; the cure was rapid and complete.

The Only Patent Medicine

I ever signed my name for," says Mr. Kendrick Kendall, of Goffstown, N. H., concerning the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy; and adds: "For a person subject to headache I do not know its equal." This wonderful medicine is for sale by Everett & Starr, Wellington, and Strong, Cobb & Co., Cleveland.

—I suffered fearfully with swollen joints, went on crutches, tried every remedy without success; Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia cured me.

THOMAS McDONNELL,

178 West Madison, Montreal.

Sold by all druggists. Trial size 25 cents. Send for pamphlet to Dr. Giles, 120 West Broadway, N. Y. Sold by J. W. Houghton, Wellington, Ohio.

—Don't fail to call for that 40 cent Japan or Green tea at Houghton's. If request is again forgotten, but respond promptly, and remember dear reader, if you owe us, that we mean you.

—Rheumatism, Neuralgia or Sciatica need no longer be regarded as incurable. The introduction of "Lawson's Curative," which is one of the perfections of Medical Science, is now regularly prescribed for these as well as for all nervous complaints. Diphtheria, Sore Throat, Nervous or Sick Headache, are promptly cured by application of the Curative. Price 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

Neighborhood News.

Berea has made arrangements for memorial services on Decoration Day.

Huron and Norwalk papers are confident that the W. & L. E. Ry. will be finished to New London this Summer.

Elder G. W. Allen, a Baptist minister quite well known in this region, died March 23d, in California, where he had gone for his health.

Gen. Wm. S. Pierson, who was the Colonel of the regiment in charge of the prisoners at Johnson's Island during the war, died suddenly at Keene, N. H., of pneumonia, last week.

Rev. I. McK. Pittman, pastor of the Brecksville Presbyterian Church, has withdrawn from the Cleveland Presbytery, and entered the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Ohio. (Berea Advertiser.)

The Amherst Free Press says that a man calling himself M. C. McNeill and pretending to be traveling in the employ of Worthington & Sons, hired a two-horse livery rig at McNeill's stable, in that place, and falling to return it in proper time was hunted up, the team being found at Oberlin and McNeill at Wellington. He was found to have been discharged by the Worthington firm, and it cost a relative from Sandusky $20 to settle with McNeill and release the young man.

The papers continue to advertise for the Ohio Scale Works. That is, they insert a five dollar notice for an article purporting to be worth a dollar and a half and get something worth only its weight in old tin for their pay. The advertisement represents that agents are easily making $5 and $6 per day. A few months ago the News was silly enough to publish the same advertisement. As a response to this five different men in this vicinity have secured the exclusive agency for the sale of the article in this county. (Oberlin News.)

We responded to the offer by telling them to send on their scales, and we would then cheerfully advertise the worth of it, and they ceased to importune us.

Bennett Bros.' Machine Shop.

Messrs. Bennett Bros., have this Spring taken a new departure in the line of manufacturing engines. Mr. Geo. L. How, a man in their employ, designed and made the patterns for an engine and pump combined; the latter being in form like the steam cylinder, occupying the same bed and worked by an extension of the piston rod through the remote head of the steam cylinder. The pump takes water as the cylinder takes steam, at each end, and is six inches in length by three in diameter, while the steam cylinder is 6x8, making, what seems a paradox to unprofessional ears, a square cylinder. The suction pipe is two inch and the discharge 1 1/2 inch in diameter, and the pump is capable of throwing a full sized stream continuously. The addition of a nozzle to the discharge pipe would enable it to throw water to considerable height, and serve all the purposes of a stationary fire engine. The bed plate is cast hollow and has a coil of pipe enclosed in it, through which the water feeding the boiler is forced by an independent pump, and into the space outside, the exhaust steam escapes, heating the water nearly to a boiling point before it reaches the boiler and effecting a great saving in fuel. The piston rod of the engine is coupled to that of the pump midway between them and can be disconnected at will, leaving it simply an engine for ordinary purposes.

It is designed especially for the use of cheese factories, for cooling milk and cleansing purposes require the use of large quantities of water, and also an engine for running churns and other machinery. It is of about five horse power, and would be equally useful for driving any light machinery. The patterns are so constructed that the pump can be omitted and give only an ordinary engine.

One was finished some three weeks ago and sold to Perry Noble of Rochester, to put into a cheese factory in Indiana, which he owns. Two more are nearly finished, and are ordered for factories in this vicinity. They are very ingenious in design, and yet simple, and add one more article to the useful manufactures of this enterprising firm. The cost of engine and pump is about $300, which is as cheap as the same could be bought in Cleveland.

They have also this Spring made a larger cylinder for D. L. Wadsworth's engine, competing for the job with a Cleveland firm. They are now working a larger number of hands than ever before, and with utmost exertion are unable to keep up with their orders.

It gives us pleasure to notice these evidences of increasing business prosperity. Other manufacturing firms are opening with flattering prospects for the coming season, and we hope we are on the eve of better times.

Some person or persons who have vim enough to start an organization or movement that shall have for its special object the beautifying of the park and public grounds of our village. A small amount of money and energy would make our village green an ornament to the town, and an educator of the esthetic tastes of our community. Wellington with its neat homes and well kept lawns, with its fine churches and well regulated and well furnished schools, with its troop of merry lads and lasses, can not afford to lose three-fourths of the benefit usually derived from well kept public grounds and parks. Especially should those who reside in humble homes be zealous in this, for the public buildings and property of a community belong as much to them as the wealthy. Here they can feast their eyes, here they can enjoy their holidays, here they can, children or friend, they may pass happily. Who does not say beautifying the park and public grounds of Wellington?
